From the President's Garage By Robin Clark

Hello Safari kids,

Happy New Year to everyone. 2001 is now history, although my boss still seems to think I'm out in space somewhere, but that's another story. 2002 looks to be like a promising year for both our chapter and P.O.C.I.

The GMC issue should be settled soon. I hope everybody participated in the voting and will be happy with the outcome. I know P.O.C.I. has worked hard on this whole issue. The Custom Safari Chapter, seems to be holding our own in membership, hovering around the 50 mark. If anyone has any ideas on promoting our chapter, please send them in, we are more than glad to hear from you. And a big thanks to everyone for hanging on.

On the car front, as I mentioned in the past, one of my left leaf springs was broken, making the car sag in the left rear, but on my last big outing, one of the springs on the right broke. Don't feel sorry for me. This is a good thing, because now I have an even sag in the rear of the car. Yeah I know, as Tom Young would tell me, fix it. Easier said than done though. Since the weather has been very nice here, work has been very busy for me. The recession has not hit in the concrete business in this area, not yet anyway.

In regards to the upcoming POCI convention, it sounds like Bill Fortune and his troops are putting together a real nice show. I hope a lot of you are planning on going. I'm going to give it my best to be there, it's been a longtime since I've been to that area of the country. It will be nice to see a lot of Safari friends. And don't forget to buy Kodak film for all of your convention picture taking!

May the Safari be with you!

Behind the Wheel in the Editor's Seat By Rich Pye

This has been one crazy winter. Since the last newsletter I think I have become a major shareholder in the medical industry. I have had elective surgery and a broken rib. My wife had LASIK surgery that went awry, with twice a week follow-up doctor visits. All three kids have had assorted ear infections, strep throat and the flu. My youngest was hospitalized with pneumonia for three days. Needless to say it has been a trying time.

I haven't done anything with my Safari except move it from the garage to the barn. I am still chasing down a shaking problem at around 55 miles per hour. My buddy has been taking the tires, one at a time to the shop, and both spin balancing and bubble balancing them. We have one more to go and with spring just around the corner, I hope to get it out in a month or so and test drive it.

Winter in Brockport has been fairly mild. While Buffalo, which is 45 miles west of me, got 7 feet of snow between Christmas and New Year's, we only got about 6 inches. I have to admit I laughed my butt off watching the radar on weatherbug.com as the snow front went back and forth over Buffalo for what seemed to be seven days straight. Every time I thought it was heading this way, it retreated and pounded Buffalo again. My sympathy goes out to chapter members Ray and Heidi Kirshner who live in that area. I have only had to plow the driveway twice all year, and haven't even been able to take the kids sledding, (not that sledding with broken ribs would be a whole lot of fun!).

In this issue you'll find a renewal form to fill out and send in with your dues, which are due ($18). I have also added a section that I would like to become a regular part of the newsletter. It's the Safari Member of the Quarter page. It includes things about you that other members would like to know. Since I didn't want to include a blank page for this issue, I answered the questions for myself. Please take the opportunity to fill out the categories I listed on that page and send the information in along with your dues payment or email it to me directly. Include a picture of your Safari if you can. Also feature articles are always welcome.

Thanks to Gary Parker for his submission to this newsletter. It is a great story of helping your fellow man or woman. I am sure we would all hope to have the same help and would reciprocate the same way. Also please welcome new members David and Mary Jean White from Connecticut. The Whites have a 1956 Custom Safari and a 1931 Pontiac. This makes our third "White" in the chapter and the second from Connecticut.

A sneak preview to the convention in West Virginia hosted by our own Bill Fortune. We are planning to schedule a Custom Safari Chapter breakfast cruise at the Cross Lanes Cracker Barrel, (approx. 9 miles from host Marriott I-64 West –Exit 45), at 9:00 A.M. Thursday, July 11. Although I won't have my Safari, I plan on riding shotgun in my 1994 Chevy Conversion Van! Please join us for this event.

Until next issue, stay healthy, (I know I am going to try), think Spring and get ready to dust off those Safaris!!

Good Guys Are Out There

By Gary Parker

I don't know if the following is worthy of the "Safari News" and this is "old" news, however, I was reflecting on the events of 9/11 (as I am sure we have all done many times since that infamous date). President Bush rightfully refers to the perpetrators as the "evil doers" and while they are on our minds each and every day, I was reminded of the "good doers" that I encountered as I drove my "fresh" '55 Safari to Grand Rapids for the 2000 POCI convention.

First, a little background information. While reassembling my engine in the final stages of a rebuild, I neglected to use self-locking rocker arm nuts as it "clearly" states in my Pontiac shop manual page 6-45! Since the rebuild, I had only driven my car approximately 20 miles to and from the garage for a NYS inspection prior to the trip to Grand Rapids. Not the smartest thing that I have done since I have owned the Safari. During that short trip, the car purred like a kitten and I must admit, I was feeling pretty good about my shade-tree mechanic abilities.

My itinerary was to drive from Spencerport, NY through Canada to Grand Rapids. Not more than an hour into my trip, I heard the tell tale sound of a "clicking" lifter. At that time, I was disappointed that the formerly purring engine was now making some unwanted noises though I told myself that it was simply part of the breaking in process. After I had crossed the border into Canada, the noise was getting worse and I decided to pull off to the side of the road under an overpass so that I could work in the shade. At this time, I was traveling on the QEW. For those of us who have had the privilege of driving on the QEW, you know that everyone drives very fast and at least 50% of the traffic is made up of tractor-trailers causing a substantial draft as they pass by.

Fortunately, I had packed a full compliment of tools and I commenced to remove the valve cover from the left side of the engine. Sure enough, the rocker arm nuts had loosened and two of the rocker arms had moved out of position. I tightened them and proceeded to work on the right side. As I removed the second valve cover a gentleman pulled over in a pickup truck and offered assistance. Turns out that he was a truck fleet maintenance mechanic and suggested that I try lock washers in an attempt to prevent the rocker arm nuts from loosening. When he opened the back of his truck I was astonished. He had a better assortment of lock washers in his arsenal of parts than a well-stocked hardware store. He gave me as many washers as I thought I needed. After I thanked him profusely and offered to pay him, he simply said, "no thanks, I am glad I could be of help and good luck."

Before I could get the washers in place a second gentleman pulled over and offered to help. Turns out he was a car buff as well. I explained the problem to him and he agreed that the temporary repair was a reasonable roadside remedy. I told him where I was headed and he stated that my route would take me very close to his home. He gave me his address, telephone number and stated that if I had any further problems, I could stop at his house, use his driveway (obviously a better place to make repairs than the shoulder of the QEW) and his tools. I told him that I would most certainly take him up on his generous offer if necessary. I thanked him and he was on his way as was I.

After traveling a number of miles, the car started sounding and acting sick again so I pulled off the highway at the first available exit. I found myself on a rural road and pulled off onto the shoulder to begin the procedure of tightening the rocker arm nuts once again. Within five minutes of lifting the hood, a gentleman approached from his home just across the street from where I had parked and asked if he could help. I described the problem to him and told him that I thought I could make the repair, however, I was fresh out of lock washers (I know, I should have installed lock washers on all of the rocker arm studs the first time, once again, wishful thinking). Believe it or not, this gentleman was also a car (truck) buff and offered to provide the necessary lock washers. Of course I asked to see his pickup truck. He allowed me to paw through his stash of nuts, bolts etc. and take whatever I needed to complete the job. I thanked him and offered to pay for the parts that he had provided. He declined and simply said "if there is anything else I can do please ask and good luck."

By the time I reached Grand Rapids (approximately 11:00 P.M.) the car was running very poorly due to the improper torque applied to the rocker arm nuts, as a result of my hasty road side repairs. The tech inspection was scheduled for the next day and I knew that I could not present the Safari the way it was running. I scoured the yellow pages for local Pontiac/GM dealerships in the area. I began calling at 7:00 A.M. the next morning. I explained that I was attending the National POCI Convention and was desperately in need of immediate service. The manager agreed to help me as soon as I could get the Safari to their garage. Fortunately, the technician assigned to my car had rebuilt several classic car engines. It was immediately obvious that he knew what he was doing. They even allowed me to work along side the mechanic to expedite the rocker arm adjustment and installation of lock nuts to prevent a recurrence of the existing problem. Needless to say, the car got a lot of attention from onlookers and all involved at the dealership stated that working on a classic car was a pleasant change. Once again, the Safari was purring like a kitten and I was first in line for the afternoon tech inspection.

The moral of this not so short story is that the "good doers" make up the vast majority of our population and it is especially evident among car enthusiasts.

When/Where did you acquire your first Safari? 1987, Williamson, NY.

What was your first car? 1974 Dodge Dart Swinger

What was your first Pontiac? 1977 Bonneville Brougham

Reason for "collecting" Safaris: Rarity of model and Indian heritage

Reason for joining the Custom Safari Chapter: Share stories and learn from other members

Favorite Safari Accessory owned: Remington Auto-Home 12V Electric Razor

Most wanted Safari Accessory: Illuminated Compass

Do you have "other" Pontiacs? If so, list model and year: 1955 Chieftain, 1969 GTO, 1998 Trans Sport

What are your favorite non-Pontiac hobbies? Camping, do-it-yourself stuff

Least favorite car task: Exhaust work

Most favorite car task: Collecting parts and driving

Best thing about being a Pontiac Custom Safari Owner: Everyone thinks the car is cool!

Favorite non-Safari car: 1969 GTO

Favorite car-related web site: classicalpontiac.com

Favorite parts vendor: Bill Fortune, of course, although I don't think I ever bought anything from him!!

Best car care tip to share: To get a tough Phillips screw out without rounding the head, dip the tip of the screwdriver in valve grind compound first. The grit will hold the screwdriver in place and prevent slipping.

FISHER BODY SERVICE NEWS

BODY LUBRICATION

The movable mechanical hardware parts of a Fisher Body are lubricated at the factory to ensure proper and quiet operation. Because of the frequent use of some parts such as door locks and door lock strikers, it is important that the readily accessible parts be lubricated at least twice a year. Other body parts should be lubricated whenever access to the parts is available.

BODY PARTS WHICH SHOULD BE LUBRICATED TWICE A YEAR

INSTRUMENT PANEL COMPARTMENT DOOR HINGE

2562, 2562DF, 2563F, 2564DF

Apply one (1) or two (2) drops of dripless oil to male and female hinge straps at locations indicated at one (1) in illustration. Wipe off excess lubricant.

DOOR JAMB SWITCH 2562, 2562DF, 2563F, 2564DF

Apply light coat of #630 AA Lubriplate or its equivalent \bigwedge_{V}^{h} to surface of switch plunger indicated at one (1) in illustration.

DOOR LOCK STRIKER 2562, 2562DF, 2563F, 2564DF

Wipe off dirt and apply thin coat of stick type lubricant to top surface of striker teeth indicated at one (1) in illustration. After lubrication, close door several times and remove excess lubricant along side edge of teeth.

FRONT DOOR HINGE HOLD-OPEN CLIPS

2562, 2562DF, 2563F, 2564DF

Wipe off dirt and apply light coat of #630 AA Lubriplate or its equivalent to clips indicated at one (1) in illustration.

DOOR LOCK 2562, 2562DF, 2563F, 2564DF

Wipe off dirt and apply thin coat of stick type lubricant on surface of lock bolt housing indicated at one (1) in illustration. Wipe off excess lubricant.

"Appraisals By Ronn" is located in Batavia, IL. The owner, chapter member Ronn Pittman keeps this business going by himself, providing appraisals of autos, trucks, and toy vehicles. He has been in business approximately 20 years, previously managing body shops at GM dealerships. Actually, he states that he is retired, but is continuing with the appraisal business.

Ronn and his wife Pat enjoy two children and one granddaughter. His hobbies include collecting and building scale model cars, plus collecting, showing and "cruising" with real cars. His favorite Pontiacs are the 1950 2-dr hardtop and the 1955 Custom Safari, which is why he owns one of each. Next time you're in need of an appraisal on your vehicle, contact "Appraisals by Ronn"!
